

UNIDO's 'Market Integration and Progress Through Skills and Employment in Rural Somaliland' project has been made possible through the generous financial contribution from the Government of Japan.